The specifics of the evaluation process should be determined by Personnel Committee, or a task force of the Board, and the Fire Chief should be informed of the process in advance. BOARD POLICY

POLICY REGARDING PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN MEETINGS

1. Two periods for public comment will be reserved for every regular meeting of the Board. Each period shall not exceed a maximum of thirty minutes, unless a majority of Board members present vote to extend the time. The first period for public comment shall be limited to items placed on the agenda, and the second period of public comment shall be used to comment on any issue of District business, other than agenda items.
2. Persons wishing to speak during public comment must sign up and include the person's name and address and the topic upon which the person wishes to speak, not later than the end of the opening exercises. A group of visitors with a common purpose should designate a spokesperson to speak for the group.
3. A visitor may introduce a topic not on the published agenda. However, the Board, at its discretion, may require that a proposal, inquiry, or request be submitted in writing, and reserve the right to refer the matter to the staff for action or for study at a subsequent meeting.
4. Speakers are limited to three minutes. Generally, the speakers will be called upon in the order in which they have signed in on the sign-in sheet. Participants must state their name and address for the record prior to addressing the Board. The Presiding Officer may allow additional persons to speak if they have not signed the sign-in sheet if sufficient time is left in the thirty minute period.
5. Should there be more speakers than can be heard for three minutes each during either of the thirty minute periods provided for public comment, the Presiding Officer may sort the requests to speak in order to afford the greatest opportunity for each topic to be heard.
6. Statements by members of the public should be brief and concise. A time limit of three (3) minutes will be allotted to an individual or a member of a group who will be recognized by the President only one (1) time on an agenda item or other topic during the meeting unless the President requests additional input.
7. Speakers may offer objective criticism of District operations and programs but the Board will not hear complaints concerning specific District personnel. The President will direct the visitor to the appropriate means of Board consideration and disposition of legitimate complaints involving individuals.
8. Board members may, after obtaining the floor, ask questions of speakers during public comment. Board members shall use restraint when exercising this option, and shall attempt to limit questioning to no more than three minutes. The Board President may intervene if a Board member is violating the spirit of this policy.
9. Anonymous and unsigned communications shall not be introduced in Board meetings.

IV. PROCEDURE:

Revised 8/2014

A. General.

Any complaint received by the Board or an individual member should be handled fairly and respectfully for all concerned. It is recognized, though, that disagreements with Board actions or decisions may occur by those who did not support the outcome, and likewise misunderstandings and problems may occur in any organization. Frequently, a complaint from the public may arise when there is less than a full understanding of the applicable facts. If the complaint involves personnel or operational matters, it is the District's policy to treat those confidentially and through established channels.

B. All written complaints should be forwarded to the Personnel Committee.

C. Complaints regarding Board decisions.

The first effort should be to explain to the complainant the rationale for the Board decision, in an effort to resolve the concern. The individual Board member is free to express whether he or she agreed or disagreed with the decision, but should be clear as to what the rationale was for the Board as a whole. If after the discussion, the individual is not satisfied, the Board member may invite the individual to put the complaint in writing and send it to the Personnel Committee.

Any complaint received by a Board Member about a Board decision, should be forwarded to the Personnel Committee. The Committee will research the complaint and either answer it, or refer it to the full Board for an opportunity to decide whether they wish to hear from the individual or whether they wish to revisit their decision. This may involve scheduling the topic for a subsequent meeting at which there is adequate time to address the matter. There is no requirement the Board take any action. Complaints regarding operations, including claims of negligence or actions of employees or volunteers, should be referred to the Fire Chief for appropriate action.

D. Complaints regarding decisions or actions of the Chief.

Nature of the Complaint: The first effort should be to determine if the decision of the chief was in the nature of an operational or personnel matter for which the responsibility has been delegated to the Fire Chief.

1. Internal Complaint Defined: If the complainant is an employee or volunteer, they should be reminded that the appropriate means of registering their concern is through the grievance process or chain of command.
Action: The Board member should avoid obtaining any details. The Board member should avoid expressing any opinion regarding the matter, in order to preserve impartiality should the grievance process result in the matter coming to the Personnel Committee for a decision.
2. External Complaint Defined: If the complaint is from a member of the public regarding a decision made or an action taken by the Chief in accordance with directions given by the Board.
Action: The Personnel Committee should explain to the complainant the rationale for the Board decision or direction, in an effort to resolve the concern. The Committee may choose to meet with the Chief and/or the complainant together to discuss the matter, in an effort to resolve it or to educate the complainant about any additional facts that may be otherwise unknown. In any case, the Personnel Committee shall advise the Chief of the complaint.

E. Assessing the seriousness of the complaint.

1. Regardless of the topic of the complaint, these procedures are designed to resolve the matter at the lowest level possible that is appropriately responsive to the seriousness of the complaint, and respecting established grievance and personnel processes in accordance with Standard Operational Guidelines.
2. The Personnel Committee should acknowledge the Board's role in any decision or action that is the subject of a complaint, to respect the viewpoint of the complainant, and to assist the complainant in seeking such additional facts as are reasonably available to resolve the matter, including but not limited to, requesting the Chief to provide a written response to the individual with copies to the Board as a whole. Subject to the Chief's discretion, prior to responding to the complaint, the Chief may request direction from the Committee or from the Board as a whole..
3. If the Personnel Committee determines that the allegations in the complaint are serious enough to risk significant liability for the District, then the whole Board should be advised, and advice of legal counsel sought. The matter may then necessitate the gathering of additional facts through a process to be determined by the Board as applies to the situation.

F. Personnel or operational complaints.

1. If the complainant is an employee or volunteer, they should be reminded that the appropriate means of registering their concern is through the Standard Operational Guidelines process and chain of command. The Personnel Committee should avoid expressing any opinion regarding the matter, in order to preserve impartiality should the grievance process result in the matter coming to the Board for a decision.
2. If the complaint is from a member of the public regarding an operational matter the Personnel Committee should refer the person to the Chief. The Committee may explain to the complainant the rationale for the Board direction, if known, in an effort to resolve the concern. The Committee may choose to meet with the Chief and the complainant together to discuss the matter, in an effort to resolve it or to educate the complainant about any additional facts that may be otherwise unknown. Regardless, the Chief shall be advised of any such complaint.
