Civil Service Commission Vacancies

Marion County Fire District No. 1 has 2 Civil Service Commissioner vacancies. The Civil Service Board consists of 3 voluntary commissioners appointed by the Marion County Fire District No. 1 Board of Directors. Each term is 4 years. You must be a US citizen, a resident of Marion County for at least 3 years, and not hold any other public or official position. Commissioners are appointed to:

- Establish a system of personnel administration based on merit, principles, governing the appointment, tenure, promotion, transfer, lay-off, removal and discipline of its officers and employees, and other incidents of employment.
- Establish and maintain a uniform plan of classification based upon the relative duties and responsibilities of positions.
- Provide an equal opportunity to qualified persons to gain employment on a basis of demonstrated merit and fitness to be ascertained by open recruitment competitive examinations.
- Develop a program of recruitment, advancement and tenure that will make a career in the district service attractive to persons who possess both ability and integrity.
- Provide an exemption from ORS 242.702 through 242.824 as provided in ORS 242.704 (1).

Please submit your interest to our agency email at info@mcf1.com by October 14th at 12:00 pm. Our Board of Directors will interview applicants at our regular Board meeting October 20th meeting at 6:00 pm.
